

Lumo - Eva Strautmann -Cy Wikipedia

Eva Strautmann – Overview (Welsh-language Wikipedia)

- Full name: Eva Strautmann
- Born: 1963, Strang (Bad Rothenfelde), Germany
- Nationality: German

Professional profile

- Artist: Primarily works in painting and mixed media, known for expressive colour palettes and abstract forms.
- Author & Lecturer: In addition to her studio practice, she writes about art theory and teaches at the Berlin University of the Arts (Universität der Künste Berlin).

Education & early career

- After completing secondary school, Strautmann lived for a period in the United Kingdom, where she began painting seriously.
- She returned to Germany to study art in Berlin, graduating with a degree in fine-art practice.

Academic role

- Joined the faculty of the Berlin University of the Arts as a lecturer (darlithydd) in visual arts, where she mentors emerging artists and contributes to curriculum development.

Recognitions

- Has received a number of awards and scholarships for her artistic achievements (specific titles are listed on the Wikipedia page).
- Her work has been exhibited internationally, with shows across Europe and beyond.

Additional resources

- Wikipedia article (Welsh): https://cy.wikipedia.org/wiki/Eva_Strautmann
- Wikidata entry (more structured data): <https://www.wikidata.org/wiki/Q1230142>

If you'd like a deeper dive—such as a translation of the full article, a list of her major exhibitions, or details on particular awards—just let me know and I can pull out those sections for you.